

ATTENTION KIDS!

Learn how to research whales and dolphins in Monterey Bay and become a Marine Life Studies Junior Research Scientist!

Whales and Dolphins of Monterey Bay Marine Life Studies Adventure

Learn how to research whales and dolphins with Peggy Stap, research and education director of Marine Life Studies.

Exciting hands-on activities include:

- Research Techniques
- Photo Identification
- Data Collection
- GPS Positioning
- Whale Watch on Monterey Bay to practice newly-learned research techniques

Classes: Tuesdays, October 12, 19, 26, and November 2

Time: 3:45 pm to 5:15 pm

Location: Monterey Youth Center

Whale Watch: Saturday, October 30

Time: 9:30 am check-in

Location: Princess Monterey Whale Watching

MARINE LIFE STUDIES

RESEARCH, EDUCATION AND CONSERVATION

WWW.MARINELIFESTUDIES.ORG

Class Size Limited Kids 8-12 years old
$135 plus $15 for materials

Teaching and Inspiring the Public to Protect Marine Wildlife

A Monterey Peninsula Regional Park District “Let’s Go Outdoors!” Program

Register online at: www.mprpd.org or call: (831) 372-3196 Ext. 3

Printed on 100% recycled paper.