

Whale Tales

Saturday, February 12

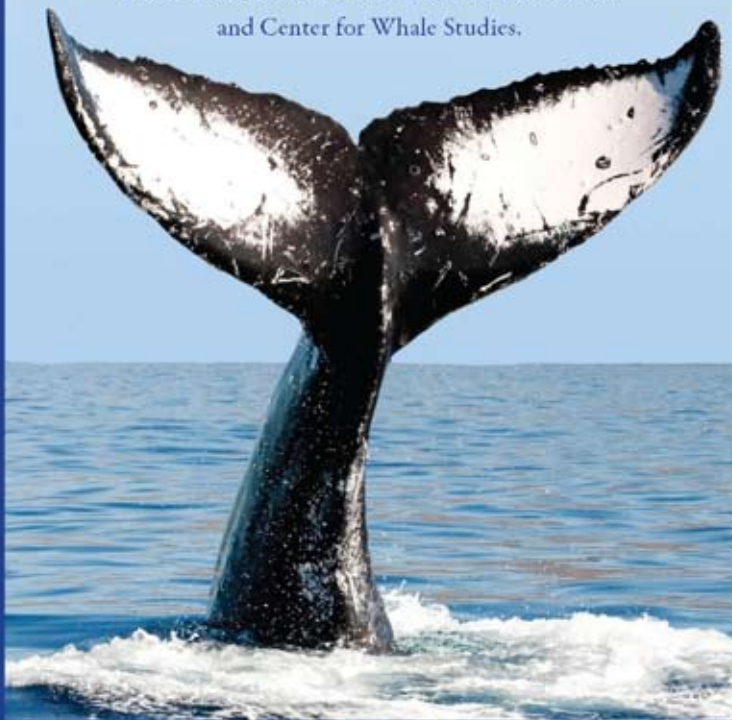

10 am – 5 pm

THE RITZ-CARLTON, KAPALUA

Please join us for an awe-inspiring one-day event featuring internationally-renowned marine researchers, photographers and conservationists who will be presenting their latest discoveries.

— FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC —

$20 suggested donation gratefully accepted. All donations benefit Whale Trust, Hawaii Whale Research Foundation, and Center for Whale Studies.

For more information visit
www.whaletrust.org or call 808.572.5700

PRESENTERS

RICHARD ELLIS, Keynote Speaker

Richard Ellis is one of America's leading marine conservationists. He is the author of more than 100 magazine articles and 20 books. His paintings of whales have appeared in Audubon, National Wildlife, Australian Geographic, the Encyclopedia Britannica, and numerous other national and international publications.

JIM DARLING, Ph.D.

Co-founder of Whale Trust, and a leading authority in gray whale and humpback behavior.

MEAGAN JONES, Ph.D.

Executive Director and Co-founder of Whale Trust. Meagan's research focuses on the social and reproductive behavior of female humpback whales.

ED LYMAN, M.Sc.

Marine Mammal Response Manager for the Hawaiian Islands Humpback Whale National Marine Sanctuary.

FLIP NICKLIN

Co-founder of Whale Trust, and world-renowned underwater photographer, who has spent his 30-year career specializing in the photography of marine mammals.

DAN R. SALDEN, Ph.D.

Founder and President of Hawaii Whale Research Foundation and Emeritus Professor at Southern Illinois University.

With surprise special guests.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS!

Complimentary interactive activities for children ages 5 - 12 will be presented by naturalists from Jean-Michel Cousteau's Ambassadors of the Environment program from 10:00 am - 5:00 pm

OFFICIAL BOOK LAUNCH AND SIGNINGS!

Flip Nicklin's most recent book, Among Giants: A Life with Whales, will be unveiled for the first time at Whale Tales.

Join Flip, Jim Darling, and Linda Nicklin from 12:00 - 1:00 pm and have your book personally signed by these authors.

All profits from book sales support Whale Trust.

